

THE NEXT LEVEL QUALIFICATION

T Level Programme Overview

Construction output in the UK totals more than £110 billion per year, which means a qualification in construction opens up a range of opportunities, giving you the practical and technical skills to build an exciting, and high level, career!

Equivalent to three A Levels, this two-year programme has also been developed in collaboration with employers and businesses, so you can rest assured that the content is relevant and up to date.

You'll spend 20% of your time on an Industry Placement, giving you vital experience in the world of work and a CV to wow future employers. Your employer may also provide you with that invaluable first reference, whilst a number of our students have also been offered full-time contracts following successful Industry Placements.

What You'll Learn

You'll focus on one occupational specialism, Bricklaying. Topics covered include:

- Preparing for the construction of complex masonry structures
- Constructing complex masonry structures
- Renovating masonry structures
- Repairing masonry structures
- Calculating labour and material costs
- Bricklaying tools and equipment

You will also cover:

- Health and safety
- Design and planning
- Presentation

Elements of Study

Your programme consists of the following elements:

- Study of your chosen vocational subject - 80% of your programme
- Employability skills, such as punctuality, attendance, communication and team work but most especially the values and expectations of your chosen occupational sector

- Industry Placement, giving you a taste of working life – 20% of your programme
- Tutorial and personal development, such as healthy living, volunteering and citizenship skills

Industry Placement

The Industry Placement is at the heart of your T Level; you'll experience an extended sector-specific Industry Placement, completing a high-level project with an employer, for 20% of your programme.

You'll be supported throughout by your own dedicated Workplace Coordinator, which means that on completion of your course, you'll be work ready, with the qualifications and experience to progress to either your dream career or university!

Pre-Professionals Programme

As part of our Pre-Professionals Programme, you'll have your own personal Learning Development Mentor, supporting you throughout your time at College. You'll also have access to a Careers Coach and Workplace Coordinator - they'll help you to manage your studies; oversee your progress; aid in your personal development; and enrich your learning, giving you exposure to not only employers, but leading companies in your sector. You'll benefit from masterclasses, industry visits and project-based learning, and they'll also support you with CV writing, personal statements, mock interviews and more, so that when it comes to the crunch, you have the skills and confidence to impress.
